2. Secretary's Comments

- a. Distributions to Beneficiaries for Month February and March 2016

Secretary Birdwell reported that through the first 9 months of FY2016, distributions to beneficiaries are $2.6 million above the same period a year ago. Distributions to Common Schools are $1 million higher to date, and Higher Education is $1.5 million ahead of the FY2015 pace.

- b. Projections for balance of FY2016

Secretary Birdwell reported by the end of FY2016, the CLO will have distributed $6-8 million more than last year.

c. March 2016 Lease Bonus Auction Report

Secretary Birdwell reported $1.18 million was received at the March lease bonus auction. The number of tracts nominated for auction was greatly reduced in comparison to previous auctions. There were 24 tracts nominated but only thirteen tracts received bids. The highest bids were in Grady and Blaine Counties. There were no bids received on the 11 nominations in Woodward County. This auction was the first serious indication of declining interest from the oil and gas industry.

d. First "Control Burn" Under Liability Insurance Coverage

Secretary Birdwell reported that the agency had conducted the first "controlled range land burn" since successfully adding supplemental insurance protection above the State risk coverage. Secretary Reese and his staff were complemented for their professionalism and work on behalf of the CLO.

e. Medical Examiner Building Progress

Secretary Birdwell reported proposals were received from developers and contractors for the Medical Examiner's office and the architect and lab design firm have completed conceptual plans. The design development drawings will be completed by the first of May. After the design is complete, the three proposers will provide specific cost. Construction should begin in the summer and be completed in the late spring of 2017.

f. Presentation to the House Republican Caucus

Secretary Birdwell reported the House leadership requested he make a presentation to the Oklahoma House, Republican Caucus. Afterwards many indicated an improved awareness of the scope of CLO. There were several requests for him to make presentations in the respective legislative districts this summer and fall.

g. Legislative Update

Secretary Birdwell reported legislation affecting the CLO has been successful with the passage in both Houses of the bill (HB2694) that streamlines the CLO's response time on construction activities. It is currently on the Governor's desk awaiting her signature.

The House bill (HB2658) filed by Representative Murdock which would provide in lieu of taxes in counties where more than 10% of the land area is owned by the CLO has passed in the House. It will be considered by the Senate very soon. Staff is closely watching the bill to make sure the bill is not expanded beyond its current scope.

3. Consideration and Possible Action for Approval of a Contract in Excess of $25,000

Renewal of the Oklahoma Press contract for agency advertisements and publications for FY2017 in the amount of $45,000.00 is requested. This contract is necessary for the advertisement of employment, lease and sale auction information.

Recommendation: The Secretary recommends approval of the request to renew the Oklahoma Press Service Contract as presented.

- a. Presented by Harry Birdwell, Secretary
- b. Discussion
